These writ petitions relates to running of stage carriage bus in Trivandrum City Corporation. The interim arrangement already granted is continuing for years together. The petitioners as well as the respondents are conducting service on the basis of temporary or regular permits granted. It has come out in evidence that there is ample requirement and for more than 10 years parties are running on the basis of temporary or regular permit as the case may be. In the above circumstances, petitioners also shall be granted regular permit in the route along with other respondents, who are having regular permits in the existing arrangements.

With these observations, writ petitions are disposed of.
